'Exports' as a condition for foreign collaboration approval

2087. SHRI DIPEN GHOSH: Will the

(a) whether 'exports' is a condition for foreign collaboration approval and if so, what is the machinery of Government to monitor this condition;

(b) whether exports are monitored on a year to year basis;

(c) whether Government would cancel the foreign collaboration approval if exports do not take place; and

(d) if not, what are the reasons therefore?

THE MINISTER OF INDUSTRY (SHRI AJIT SINGH): (a) to (d) Export obligations are stipulated in foreign collaboration approvals wherever considered necessary

Export obligation is monitored on a year-to-year basis.

The export performance of the units on whom export obligation has been stipulated is monitored by the Office of the Chief Controller of Imports and Exports and its Regional Offices. the concerned units have to execute a legal agreement/bond with the Government as a safeguard against non-fulfilment of export obligation. In the event of non-fulfilment of export obligation, action to enforce the obligation is taken in accordance with prescribed procedures and penal action is initiated under Clause (8) of the Imports (Control) Order 1955, as amended, and Imports and Exports (Control) Act 1947.
